Dear students of Point Blank Music School Los Angeles,

We hope this message finds you well.

We are writing to you today to inform you of some unfortunate news. Regrettably, certain conditions in the current domestic and global climate have made it increasingly challenging for schools to exist in the higher education sector, particularly in arts higher education. For Point Blank Music School Los Angeles, despite achieving our national accreditation in 2024 through the National Association of Schools of Music and receiving NASM approval to offer multiple new bachelor's degree and associate degree programs, sustained enrollment challenges have affected the school's long-term viability. For this reason, the institution currently has no choice but to make the difficult decision to close its doors and cease all operations as of December 31, 2026. The last day after which all instruction will cease is October 4, 2026.

Your official academic transcript and institutional student records will be maintained permanently by our Custodian of Records. You may access your transcript and student record by contacting the Custodian of Records through the following details:

- Custodian of Records Name: Christie Jay Beauchamp

- Custodian of Records Physical Address: 1112 Montana Ave #169, Santa Monica CA 90403
- Custodian of Records Email Address: support@pointblankmusicschool.com

In order to access your official academic transcript and institutional student records, please email, call, or write a letter to the Custodian of Records using the contact details provided above.

The office may be reached by calling (888) 370-7589, option #5 or by visiting https://osar.bppe.ca.gov/

Since this school closure means Point Blank Music School Los Angeles will not be able to complete your educational program, teach-out and transfer arrangements have been made with Musicians Institute, an institution approved by California's Bureau for Private Postsecondary education and accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music since 1980.
